CERTIFICATION OF LEGAL BLINDNESS

Section 1281(17) of the Connecticut General Statutes provides for a $3,000 exemption on the assessed valuation of property belonging to or held in trust for a blind resident of this State. Section 1292 defines blindness:

"...blindness shall be defined to mean total and permanent loss of sight in both eyes or reduction in vision so that the central visual acuity does not exceed 20/200 in the better eye with correcting lenses, or, if visual acuity is greater than 20/200, it is accompanied by a limitation in the fields of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than twenty degrees."
