

WINDSOR LOCKS, you've been Yarn Bombed!

Have you seen it yet? On Main Street?

The Yarn Bombing exhibit was created in partnership with the Windsor Locks Art Council and the Windsor Locks Women's Club to bring community members and passersby a moment of surprise and delight.

The newly formed Windsor Locks Arts Council wanted to choose something unique and fun to provide color on Main Street during the cold winter months. The hope is that this project engages the community and gets neighbors and business owners talking with one another.

1. Please "like" and follow us on Facebook at Windsor Locks Arts for more fun! <https://www.facebook.com/WLArtsCouncil/>
2. Please take and post photos on your social media pages and on the Windsor Locks Arts Facebook page, too! (just please be careful near the roadway!)

Kudos! Crocheting was completed by the Windsor Locks Women's Club "Chicks with Sticks" Crochet Group: Pam Collins, Lynn Mazza-Benis, Cathy Jacobson, Coleen Roy, Kathy Williams, Cindy Stoecker, and Cathy Simoneau.

Yarn bombing (or yarnbombing) is a type of street art that employs colorful displays of knitted or crocheted yarn or fiber rather than paint or chalk. It is also called wool bombing, yarn storming, guerrilla knitting, kniffiti, urban knitting, or graffiti knitting. (Wikipedia)
